

Hamiltonians were invited to form a circle of solidarity around local mosques following Christchurch attack.

The Hamilton Spectator

Mar 22, 2019

Photos and video: Standing as one against Islamophobia in Hamilton

Hamiltonians were invited to the city's mosques during Friday prayers to form a circle of solidarity following a terrorist's rampage in Christchurch New Zealand. Solidarity Circles are formed to bring an end to hate, Islamophobia and white supremacy, as well as a show of support for our Muslim community.