EMpower Strategy Group provides support to organizations to help them move from ideas to action. We help our partners create an actionable approach that embeds EDI within the DNA of your organization. Already have training in place, but worried about getting it right? Do you have policies that reflect your diversity goals? Not sure if you're doing enough? Sustainable progress will not be achieved if DEI is driven in a silo. EDI must be embedded within the DNA of an organization, identified as fundamental to its success and naturally woven into the fabric of its business, customer and workforce strategies.
